Main Sermon Passage

2 Kings 5:1–15

Study Passages of the Week

2 Kings 1–8; Psalm 38

Theme or Focus

Healing the Outsider: Grace Beyond Borders

2 Kings 1- 8 continues the ministry of Elijah and Elisha, highlighting God's power working through His prophets during a time of political instability and spiritual decline. These chapters include miracles of provision, healing, and restoration, demonstrating that God is active and compassionate even in a divided kingdom.

A key theme is that God's grace extends beyond Israel, most clearly seen in the healing of Naaman, a foreign commander. This reveals that God's power and mercy are not limited by national or ethnic boundaries.

Psalm 38 reflects a personal cry for mercy and healing, acknowledging sin and dependence on God's compassion. Together, these passages emphasize that God's grace reaches the outsider, the broken, and the humble who seek Him.

Memory Verse

2 Kings 5:15 - “Now I know that there is no God in all the world except in Israel.”

Reflection & Discussion

What kinds of miracles are performed in 2 Kings 1–8, and what do they reveal about God?

Why is Naaman’s healing significant in the context of Israel’s story?

How does Naaman initially respond to Elisha’s instructions, and what changes?

What do these passages teach about humility and obedience?

How does Psalm 38 express the need for God’s mercy and healing?
